Name(s) of student(s) you are sponsoring:

Why is your community interested in certifying Safety Codes Officers?
Please describe how certification will benefit the community.

Have you identified any mentorship supports?
Please check all that apply:

- a certified SCO mentor willing to support the sponsored students with training or on-the-job experience
- a partner organization who is Accredited with the Safety Codes Council who is willing to provide mentorship or on-the-job training
- a senior internal resource in place to oversee and support students with certification (e.g. Manager of Housing serves as sponsor for students completing training).

Please identify any funding your community is willing to contribute to certification costs, either directly or through grant funding resources.

Please list any barriers, financial or otherwise, preventing individuals in your community from being certified as SCOs.

Selection Committee & Process

The Safety Codes Council Indigenous Bursary committee is comprised of the following:

- The Administrator of Certification, or delegate
- The Team Lead (Certification), or delegate
- Three additional members representing safety system and Indigenous stakeholders from a variety of sectors and disciplines, appointed by the Administrator of Certification.

Selection Criteria

After meeting the eligibility criteria, award recipients will be selected based on the following criteria:

- Financial need
- A high potential to contribute positively to the Safety Codes system based on previous experience and identified interests
- Demonstrated need within the community for safety codes officer training
- Identification of community readiness to support the student with certification.

These criteria will be assessed based on the applicant's submission.

Bursary Amount

The amount of the bursary varies, but will not exceed 75% of the certification cost for the discipline and level indicated on the bursary application form.
