

Canadian Electrical Code Part 1 2024: Code Update Requirement and Resources

Summary

The 2024 Canadian Electrical Code, Part I (26th edition) was published on March 4, 2024, and is scheduled to come into force on April 1, 2025, throughout the Province of Alberta.

Action Required

To maintain their certificates of competency, all master electricians and Electrical Group A safety codes officers are required to complete mandatory 2024 Canadian Electrical Code Update training by April 1, 2025, and submit their completion certificates to the Safety Codes Council through their Council Connect account.

Approved Providers

You may take any of the below courses to fulfill this code update requirement:

- CSA Group - 2024 Canadian Electrical Code Overview of Changes \(self-directed\)
- CSA Group - 2024 Canadian Electrical Code Overview of Changes - Instructor-Led Course
- Electrical Contractors Association of Alberta - What's New in the 2024 Canadian Electrical Code
- Southern Alberta Institute of Technology - CODE 103 - What's New in Code?
- Northern Alberta Institute of Technology - ELTR705 - Electrical Code Update
- Viable Solutions – Canadian Electrical Code 2024

How to upload your Proof of Completion

1. Ensure you have received official proof of completion, such as a certificate of completion, from your training provider.
2. Go to Council Connect and log into your account.
3. On your dashboard, click “Renew.”
4. Next, click on “Electrical Code Update 2024 (26th Edition).
5. Finally, upload your proof of completion by clicking on the blue “Add Document” button and hit ‘save’.
6. Once you upload the certificate, if your certificate is due for renewal or reinstatement, you will be required to make a payment.
